About the International Institute of Business Analysis (IIBA™)

The IIBA was formed in October 2003 and is the independent non-profit professional association serving the growing field of business analysis. If you are responsible for requirements management, systems analysis, business analysis, requirements analysis, project management or consulting, or if you are involved in analysis for systems, business or process improvements, the IIBA can help you perform your job better.

IIBA's Commitment

The International Institute of Business Analysis is committed to defining the business analysis profession by providing certification and accreditation to its members, unifying its practitioners and creating a voice for the profession.

IIBA's Operational Vision

The IIBA will keep its commitment by:

- Creating awareness and recognition of the value and contribution of the role of the business analysis professional
- Identifying the required skills and competencies of qualified business analysts and defining the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge® (BABOK®)
- Defining professional development and training standards
- Creating and administering a professional exam
- Publicly recognizing those who have successfully passed this exam through the designation Certified Business Analysis Professional™ (CBAP®)
- Building the image and identity of the IIBA as the recognized professional association for business analysis professionals

Membership Benefits

The IIBA has over 6,000 members from more than 40 countries worldwide, with over 70 local chapters. IIBA members benefit from:

- Networking opportunities with fellow business analysis professionals
- Access to valuable online forums for sharing your expertise, expressing your professional opinion and building a reputation within the industry
- Opportunity to influence and contribute to the business analysis profession
- Access to job postings from industry leading companies
- Access the BABOK® Version 1.6 and free access to the BABOK® Version 2.0 when available (late 2008)
- Discounted fee for the CBAP® exam

Certified Business Analysis Professional™ (CBAP®)

CBAP™ The IIBA has created the CBAP®, a designation awarded to candidates who have successfully demonstrated their expertise in this field. This is done by detailing hands-on work experience in business analysis through the CBAP® application process, and passing the CBAP® examination which is based on the BABOK®.

The IIBA is introducing computer-based testing (CBT) of the CBAP® exam in the fall of 2008. For more information, and for a complete list of exam dates and locations in 2008, visit www.theiiba.org.

Chapters

IIBA Chapters advance the mission and objectives of the organization by promoting professional standards and practices at the local level. Ongoing professional development is a key benefit of your IIBA membership and is supported at the chapter level through activities, meetings, and educational programs.

The IIBA currently has over 70 certified Chapters globally, with 60 Chapters in the start-up phase. To view a complete list of IIBA Chapters worldwide, visit www.theiiba.org.
